

Have you been diagnosed with an eating disorder?

Researchers at the University of Guelph are looking for participants 18 years and older and fluent in English, who have previously been diagnosed with EDNOS, OSFED, binge eating disorder, bulimia nervosa, and/or anorexia nervosa and made significant improvements in their eating to share their thoughts on eating disorders.

As part of this study, you will be asked to complete a series of online questionnaires.
